ABOUT TONIGHT'S PERFORMANCE

This week's Senior County Music Festival is made possible through a unique partnership between two organizations who are committed to supporting arts education in our region.

- Music Educators of Berks County (MEBC) is comprised of music educators from the 18 public school districts in Berks County.
- Berks Arts is a nonprofit organization based in Reading, Pa. whose mission is to inspire, engage, and unite the community through education, presentation, and collaboration.

These organizations have collaborated for this week's festival in order to provide a fun, excellent, world-class experience for music students at every Berks County school. Additionally, the arts and business communities have come together through this partnership to support our collective effort to nurture and grow music education programs across Berks County.

The Arts possess the power to transform lives and communities alike, and that power is amplified when we come together for a common cause. We are grateful for everyone who contributes in such meaningful and impactful ways:

Thank you to the Families.

Thank you to the Teachers.

Thank you to the Administrators.

Thank you to the Sponsors and Supporters.

Thank you to the Volunteers.

And of course... thank you to the Students. You inspire us each and every day.

Sit back, relax, and enjoy tonight's wonderful performance.

Thank you,

John Evans, President of MEBC

Justin Heimbecker, Executive Director of Berks Arts

ABOUT BERKS ARTS

Berks Arts is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization whose mission is to inspire, engage and unite our community through arts education, collaboration and presentation. We have been promoting the arts in Berks County since 1969.

Our vision is to support community and economic growth, promote positive change and to create a more connected community. To do this, we offer a variety of artistic and educational programs including music festivals, art exhibits and public art installations, educational programming, and grants for artists and organizations across the region.

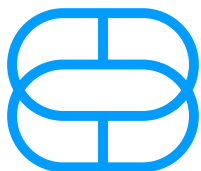

To learn more about becoming involved with Berks Arts as a volunteer, donor, sponsor, or in any other capacity, please visit our website at berksarts.org or contact us at info@berksarts.org.
